

Q: About Chrisland University

A: Chrisland University is a private, internationally recognized university that believes the lack of imagination is the source of all adversity in our world. The University therefore takes seriously the empowerment of students by tapping into the awesome creative potentials that rest within the imagination, which is why we graduate our students with two certificates- Bachelor Degree and Entrepreneurship Training certification. Having realized the need to produce men and women who will not only be academically sound but economically sufficient, Chrisland University is leaving no stone unturned by making entrepreneurship a composite part and parcel of courses they are learning. Chrisland University has continued to grow in the prevailing circumstances as we are counting up to 862 students and more are coming. Chrisland University's international reputation is growing as there are students from different African countries studying in the Institution
